FOR THE CLARION. Prohibition in Jasper County.

A mass meeting of the friends of pro hibition was called on the 15th instant. Rev. J. H. Gambrell, Corresponding and Financial Secretary of State Prohibition G. Henry; 2d Lieut, Albert P. Hill; 3d Executive Committee, entertained the meeting for over an hour, presenting and discussing the plans and purposes of the Committee, and the necessity for prohibition, in one of the ablest speeches we have had the pleasure of hearing. The arguments were sound, the facts and figures conclusive, and the logical inferences from premises thoroughly convincing. The eloquent speaker asserted that Prohibition is constitutional. The doctrine has been affirmed by the U. S. courts and the State courts. In the case of Henry Moore, (representing a Lottery Company), vs. The State of Mississippi, vi. Morris Reports, the doc trine is distinctly affirmed; the court holding that the Constitution forbids the operation of any business in the State which would tend to the prostitution of the morals of the citizen. The whole case turned on the question of the effect on the moral interest of the citizen, and the charter was annulled. The speaker carnestly asked will any one undertake to show that the liquor traffic does not effect the moral prosti-results in demoralization, crime and vice in any community, then prohibiting the traffic is constitutional. The beneficial results of prohibition, where such taws were enforced, were presented with an array of testimony perfectly overwhelming. No man, with any respect for truth, would undertake commissioned officers and privates, 72. to dispute the facts, furnished as they were by the best men in and out of the
